Check Out Louisiana Museums

Your library card just got an upgrade. The West Feliciana Parish Library has been selected as one of the pilot locations for the new Check Out Louisiana Museums program—a statewide initiative to make Louisiana's cultural treasures more accessible to everyone.

You can now check out museum passes to some of the best attractions in the state—available to you at no additional cost with your library card, including:

-  The National WWII Museum
 -  New Orleans Jazz Museum
 -  Capitol Park Museum
 -  The Louisiana Civil Rights Museum
- ...and many more!

Head to <https://www.wfplibrary.org/museums> to reserve your group pass and start planning your next adventure. Passes are limited, so snag yours early and don't miss out.

Playground Update

The new playground structure for ages 5–12 has been installed! We've repaired the gate on the hospital side and are ordering signs reminding visitors to keep the gates closed for safety. The playground is expected to open for use by mid-month, once the old equipment and debris have been cleared. Two additional play features are still on the way as part of this first phase of improvements. We're also gathering quotes for a child-safe gate at the main entrance. Thank you for your patience as we finish these updates!

Fall Storytime, Tuesdays 10-10:30AM September 23rd through December 2nd

Join our new Children's Librarian, Lily Martinez, for Fall Storytime, starting Tuesday, Sept. 23rd at 10am in the castle.

For Preschoolers Ages 2–4

This playful, interactive program sparks early literacy while also giving little ones a chance to practice listening, sharing, and connecting with others their age.

What to Expect

Library staff will bring books to life with lively voices and animated reading. Children will enjoy a mix of timeless classics, fresh favorites, and stories designed to invite participation. We'll add in catchy songs and bouncy rhymes to get everyone singing, clapping, and moving—activities that build language skills and a natural sense of rhythm.

Who Can Join

Perfect for preschoolers ages 2–4, though younger and older siblings are more than welcome to join the fun.
